Hello, we see you are using Firefox to view this website. In order to view background videos on several pages, please enable "Autoplay" for this site.

To do so, click the Autoplay icon right next to the field for entering website addresses, and select "Allow Audio and Video" (see screenshot above).

This will allow this site to play all background videos, but will not affect any other websites. You will need to refresh your browser for the setting to take effect.

Once you dismiss this message, it will not be shown again.

Sustainability Intern - Priscila Hsu

Priscila Hsu
Undergraduate Senior, Class of 2024

Major in International Relations and Spanish

Priscila Chen Hsu is a fourth-year student majoring in International Relations and Spanish. She possesses a strong passion for the intersection of sustainability and policy, and this marks her third year serving as a Zero-Waste intern for R&DE.

During her tenure as an intern for R&DE, Priscila has contributed to various sustainability projects. These include the implementation of Zero Waste bins in graduate residences, assisting in translating sustainability training into Spanish for custodians, and most recently, developing a Sustainability Toolkit for Residential Staff. Priscila finds fulfillment in her role as an intern for the sustainability team because it allows her to engage in designing and implementing projects that genuinely impact the campus. She particularly enjoys leveraging her own experiences as a student and RA to devise potential solutions and minimize waste in our community.

Looking ahead, Priscila aspires to attend law school and persist in her efforts to address sustainability, ranging from incorporating eco-friendly practices into her daily life to eventually formulating policy solutions.

Printer-friendly version