Letter to ProFros
WELCOME PROFROS AND FAMILIES!

All of us in Residential & Dining Enterprises (R&DE) are happy to welcome you to campus for Admit Weekend, and look forward to saying, “Welcome Home” to you in the fall.

Our goal is to support the student living experience with excellence in housing, dining and other services. Above all, we want to ensure every student knows that they are welcome and valued. In R&DE, we believe students come first. You are the reason we are here!

We hope you will have an opportunity this weekend to explore the variety of housing options available to first-year students. On the R&DE website, you can also visit the undergraduate housing options page, to see the options available to you in future years. The Student Housing portion of the R&DE website has more information about our program. (Note: While you are exploring the website, you may see references to house and room selection. This is only for current students. You will receive information about your housing options in a few weeks.)

This weekend, you also have the opportunity to visit our dining halls and taste the delicious, nutritious, sustainable meals we offer. The Stanford Dining program is designed to meet the variety of needs of our diverse student body. This includes options for vegan, vegetarian, gluten-free, kosher, halal and other diets. We also offer a dining hall for students who are sensitive or allergic to tree nuts and peanuts. Our nutritionists are available to assist students who have food allergies, religious dietary requirements and other special diets and those who have questions about nutrition. More information about the dining program can be found on the Eat Well@Stanford portion of the R&DE website. Meal plan information can be found here. Please also take a moment to visit the Stanford Dining, Hospitality & Auxiliaries (SDHA) website to learn more about the programs available to support and engage students.
A wide range of R&DE cafés and markets are available across campus where students can purchase meals, groceries and more. The Undergraduate Admissions Office is providing parents $20 Cardinal Dollars cards. You can use them at any specified R&DE café and market location. For a list of R&DE café and market locations and hours click the link.

While you are here, take advantage of the knowledgeable staff who are ready to answer your questions, and let us know if there is anything we can do to make your weekend enjoyable and productive.

On behalf of all R&DE staff, welcome!

Warm regards,

Shirley J. Everett, Ed.D., MBA
